

Conference Attendee Survey

Responding to Resurgent HIV/STI Incidence
Among MSM in CT

Wilson R. Palacios, Ph.D.
University of South Florida

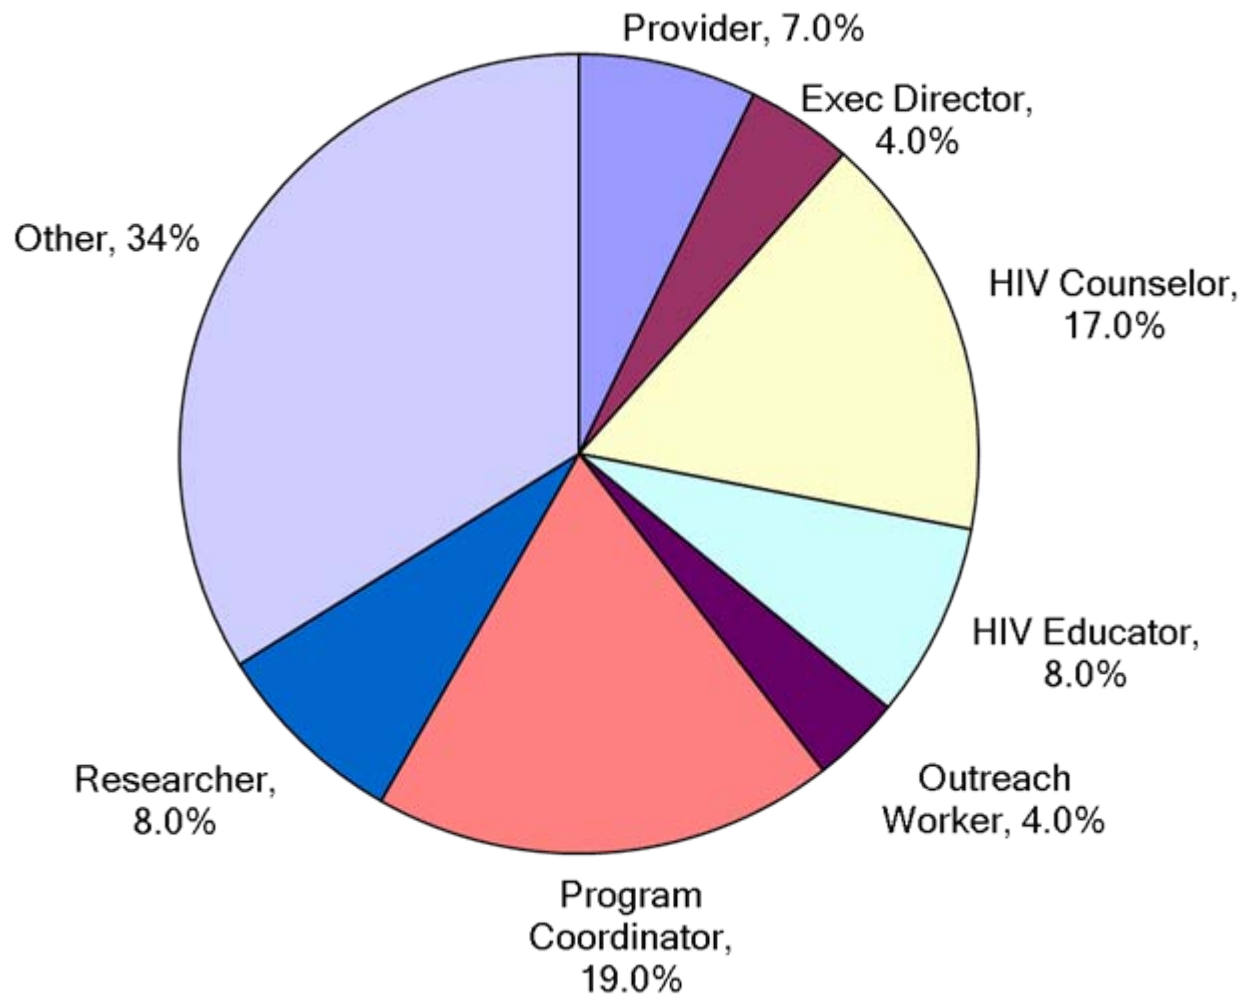

&

Center for Interdisciplinary Research on AIDS (CIRA)

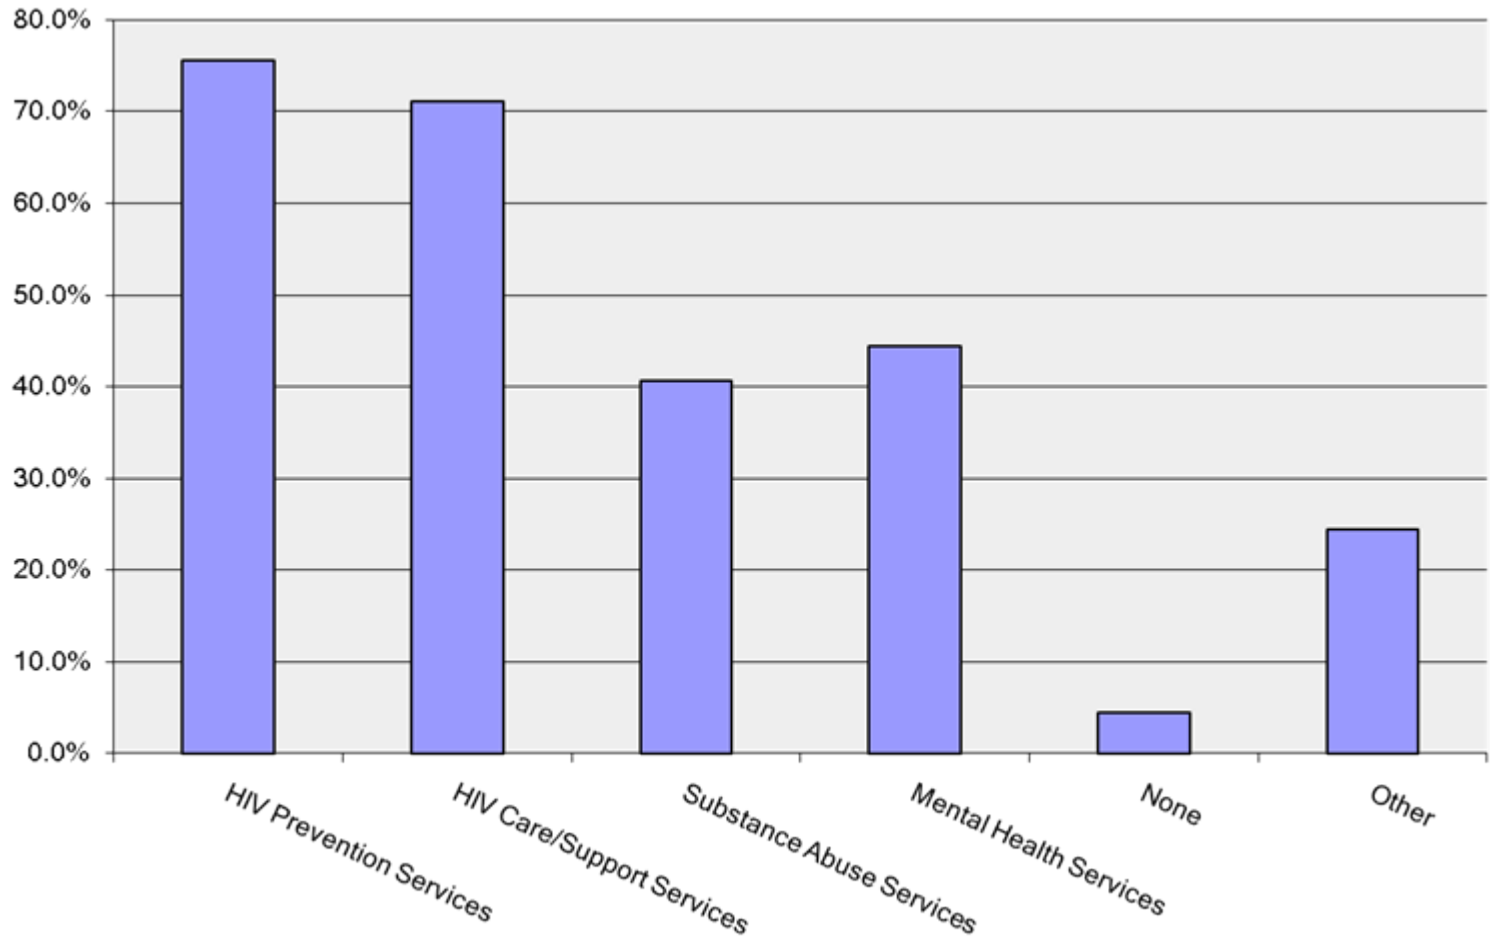

Conference Attendee Survey

- Purpose ~ Assessing Agency Needs
- Online Survey
- Total Registered Attendees – 190
 - Response Rate – 73% as of 5/28
 - Attendees Initiating Survey – 139
 - Attendees Completing Survey – 133

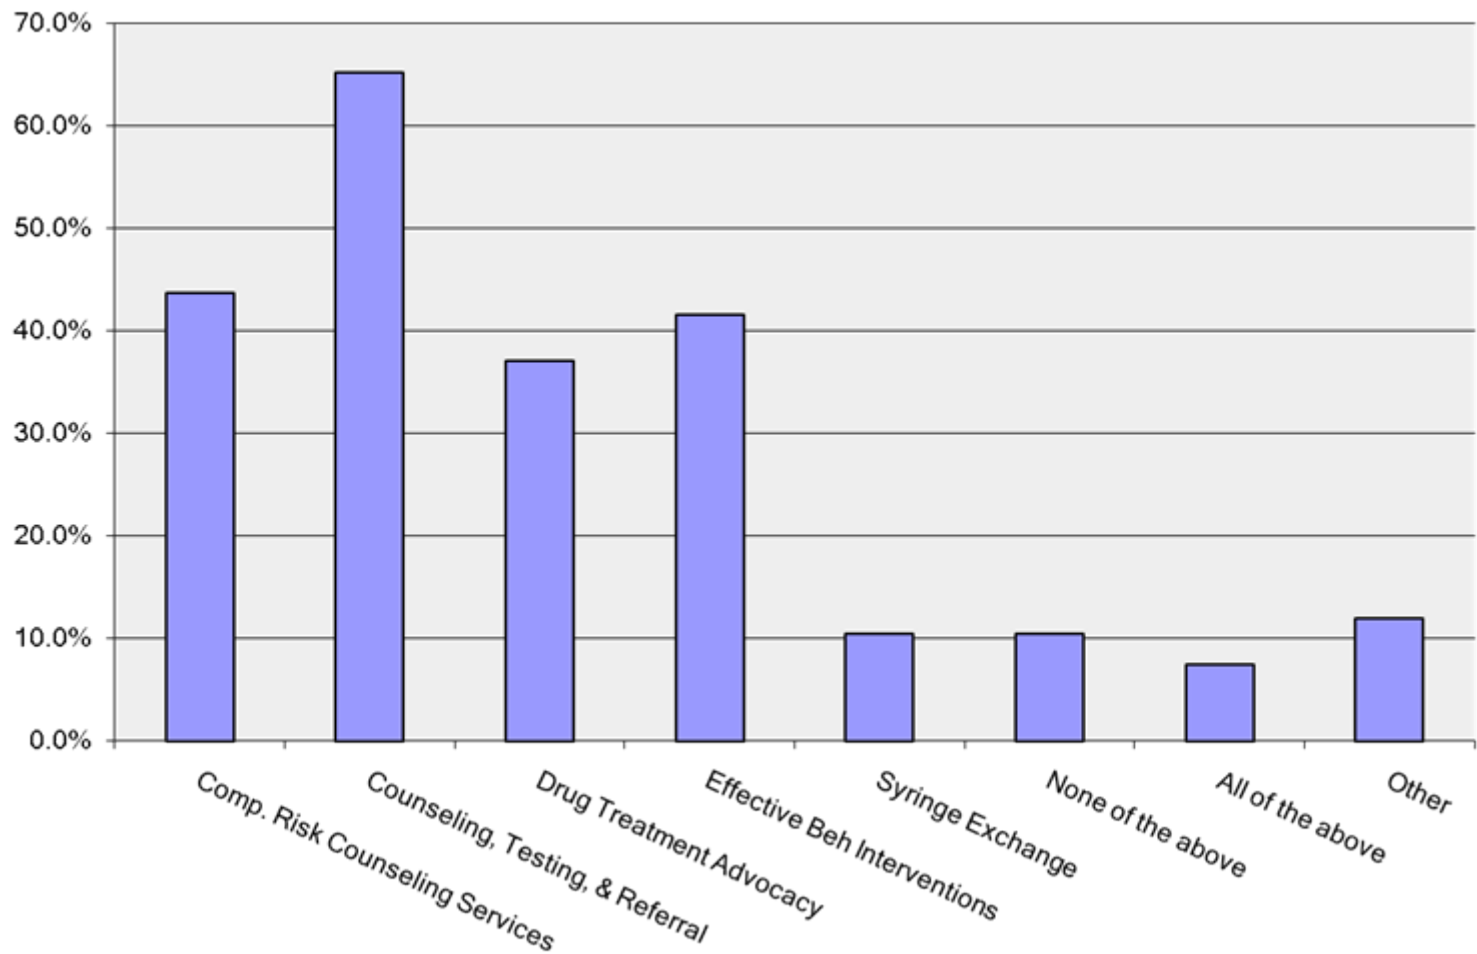

What role do you play in HIV prevention?

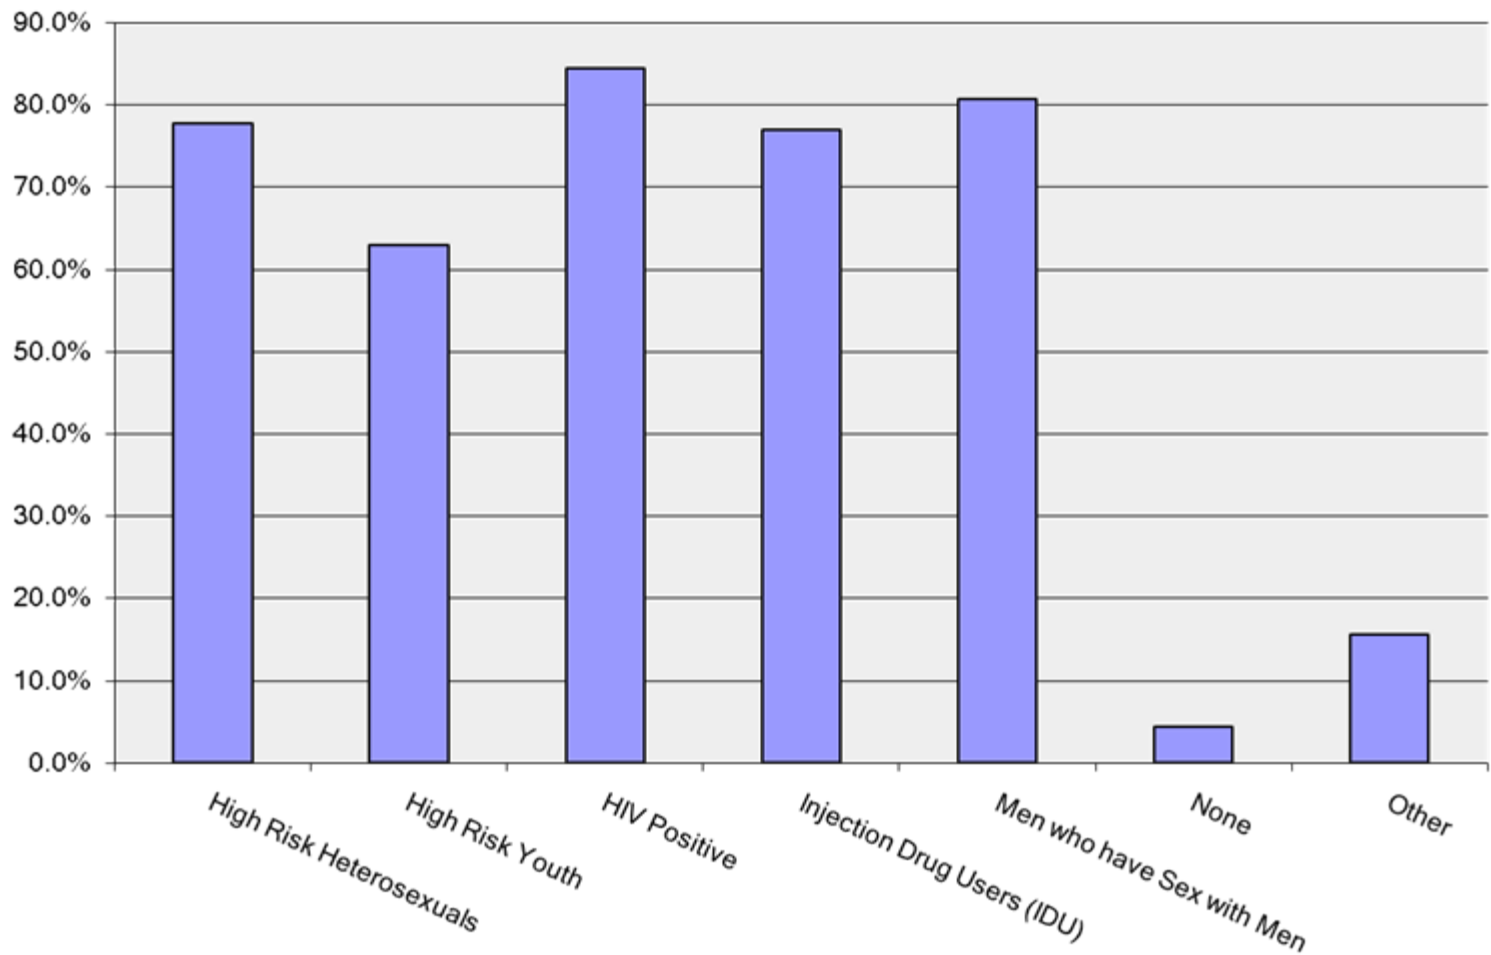

What services does your agency provide?

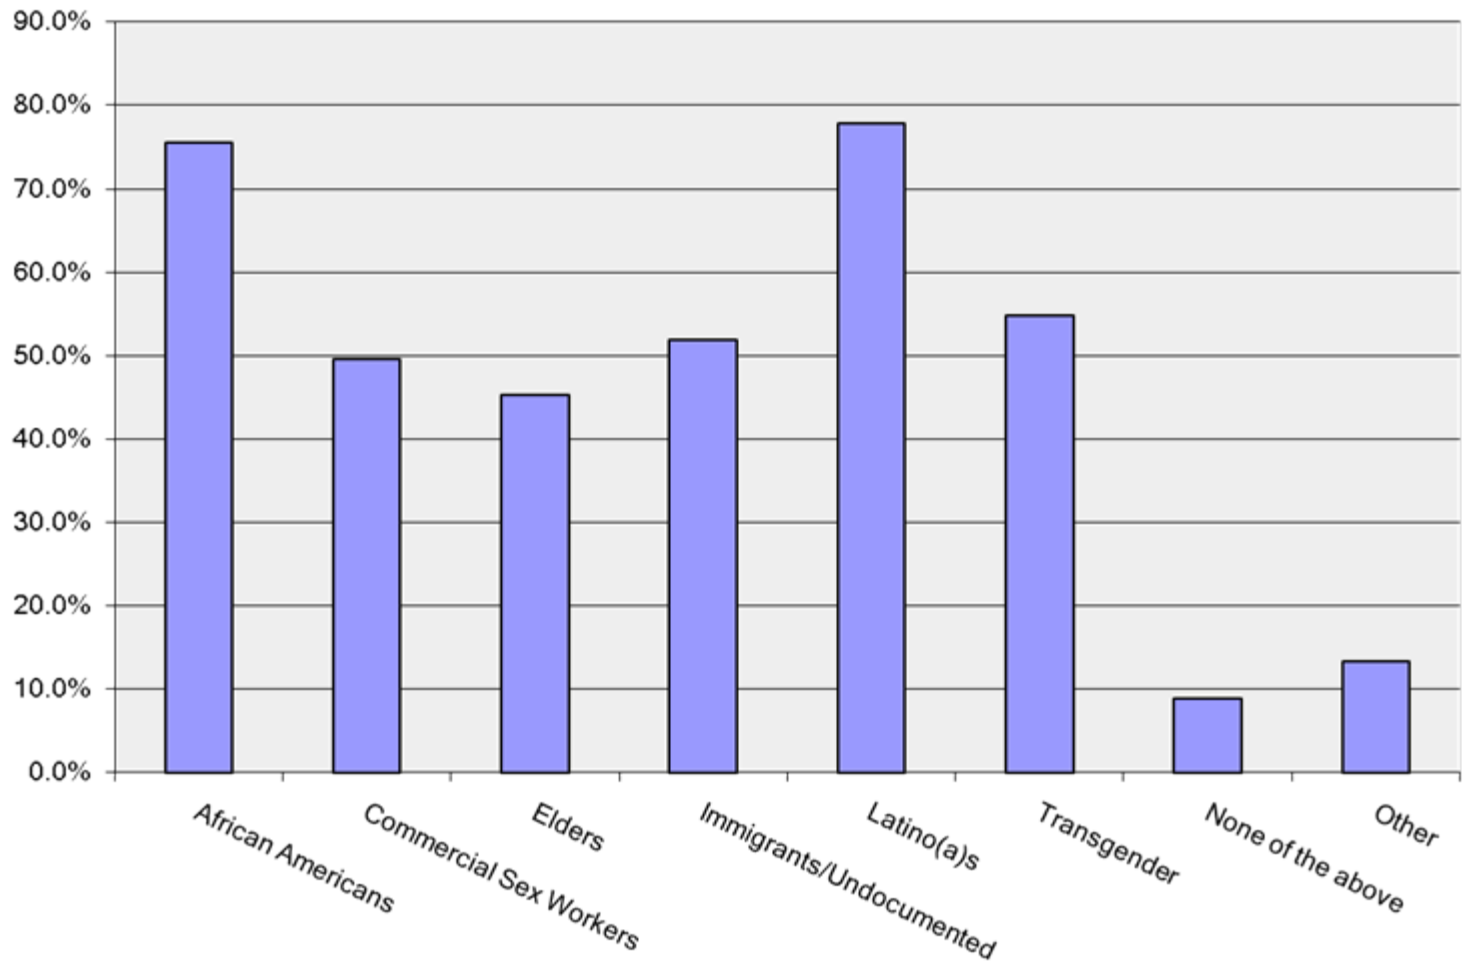

What specific HIV prevention service does your agency currently provide?

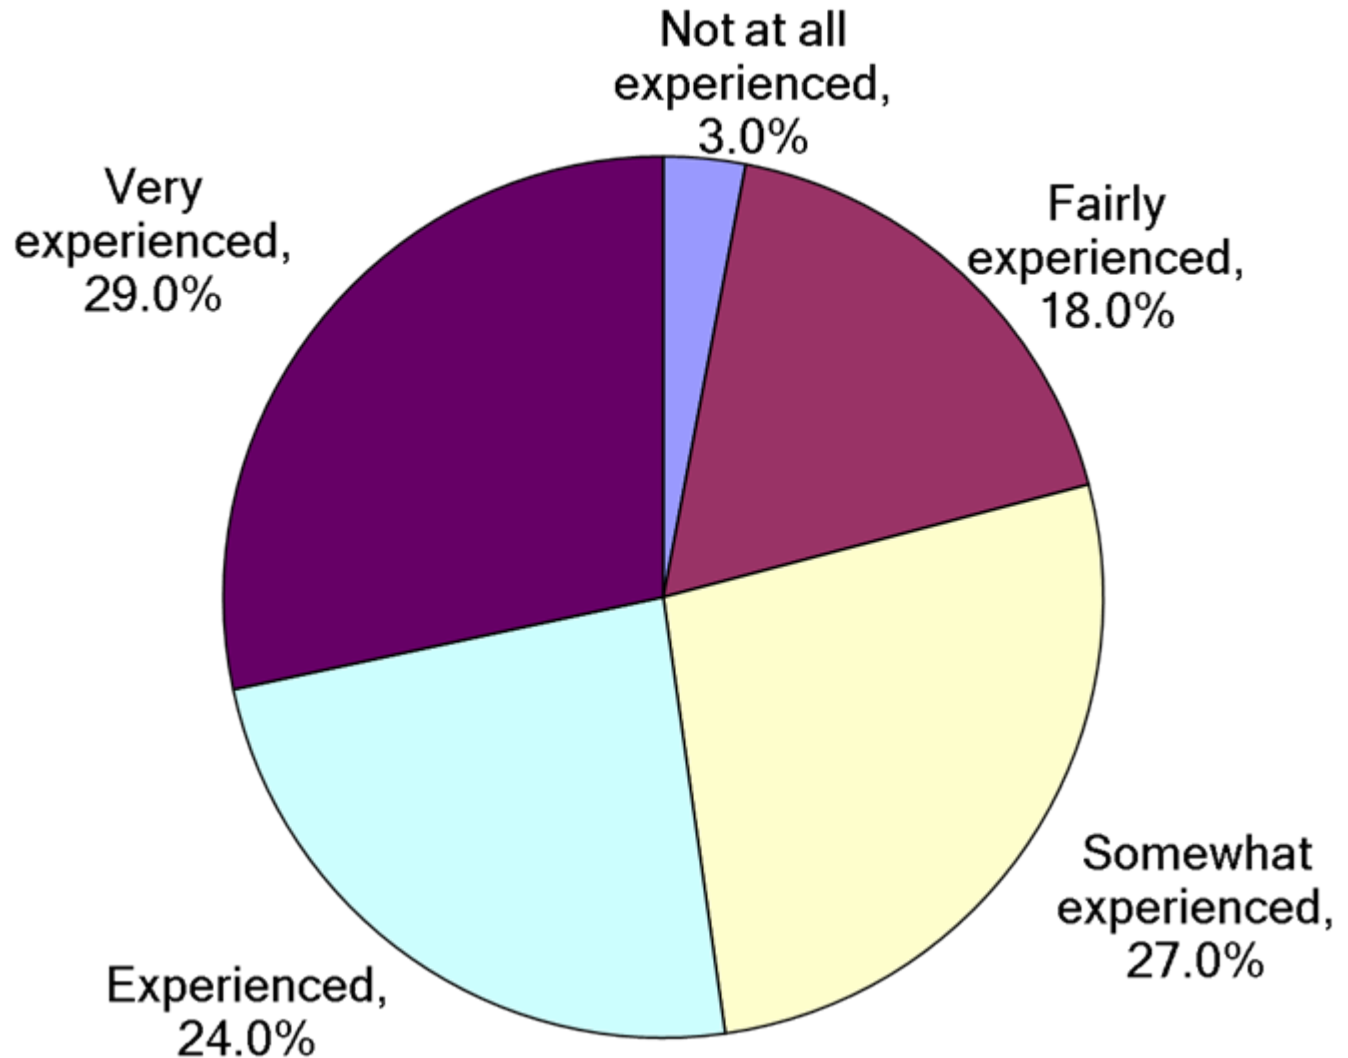

What populations does your agency currently serve?

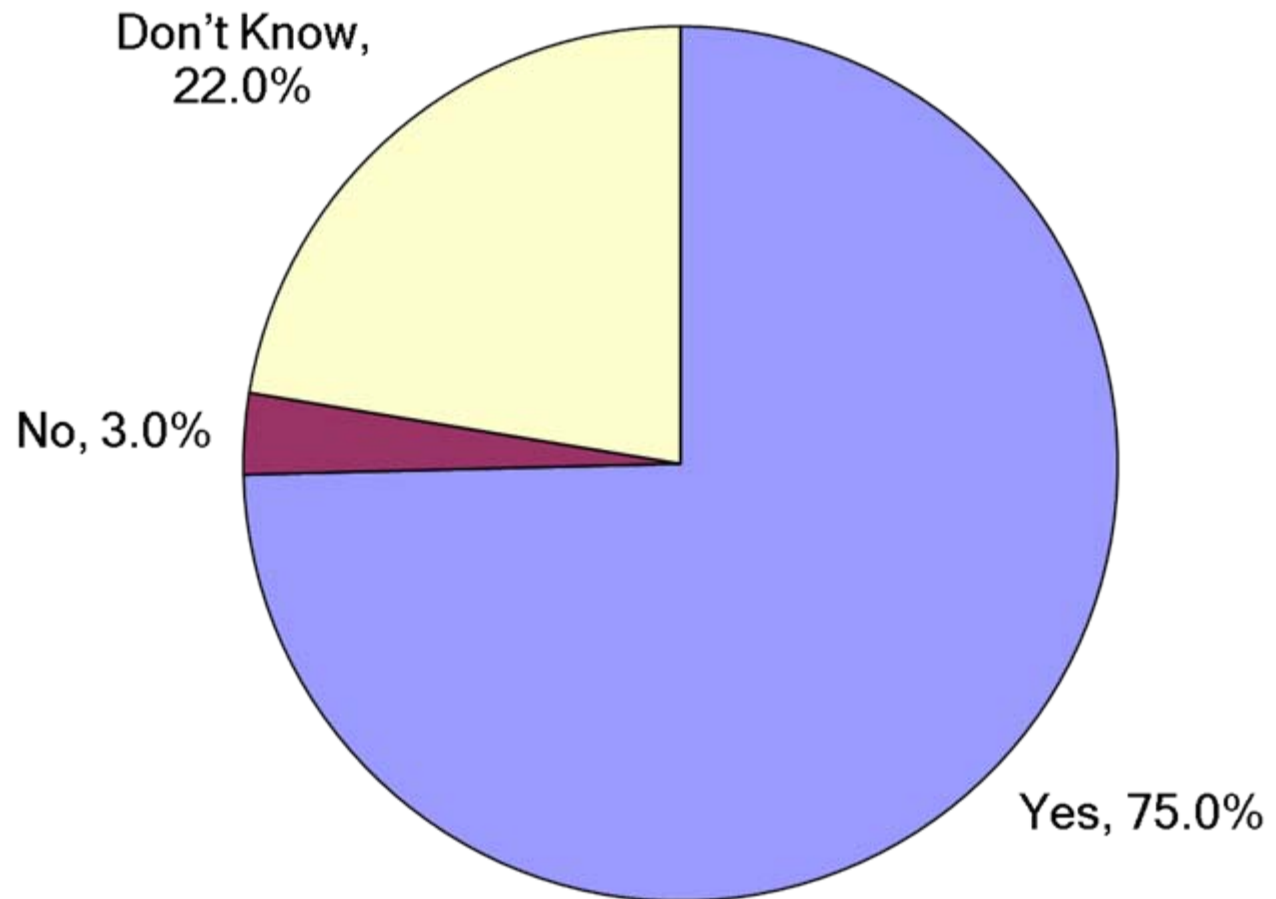

Does your agency have a particular capacity to serve any of the following segments of the population?

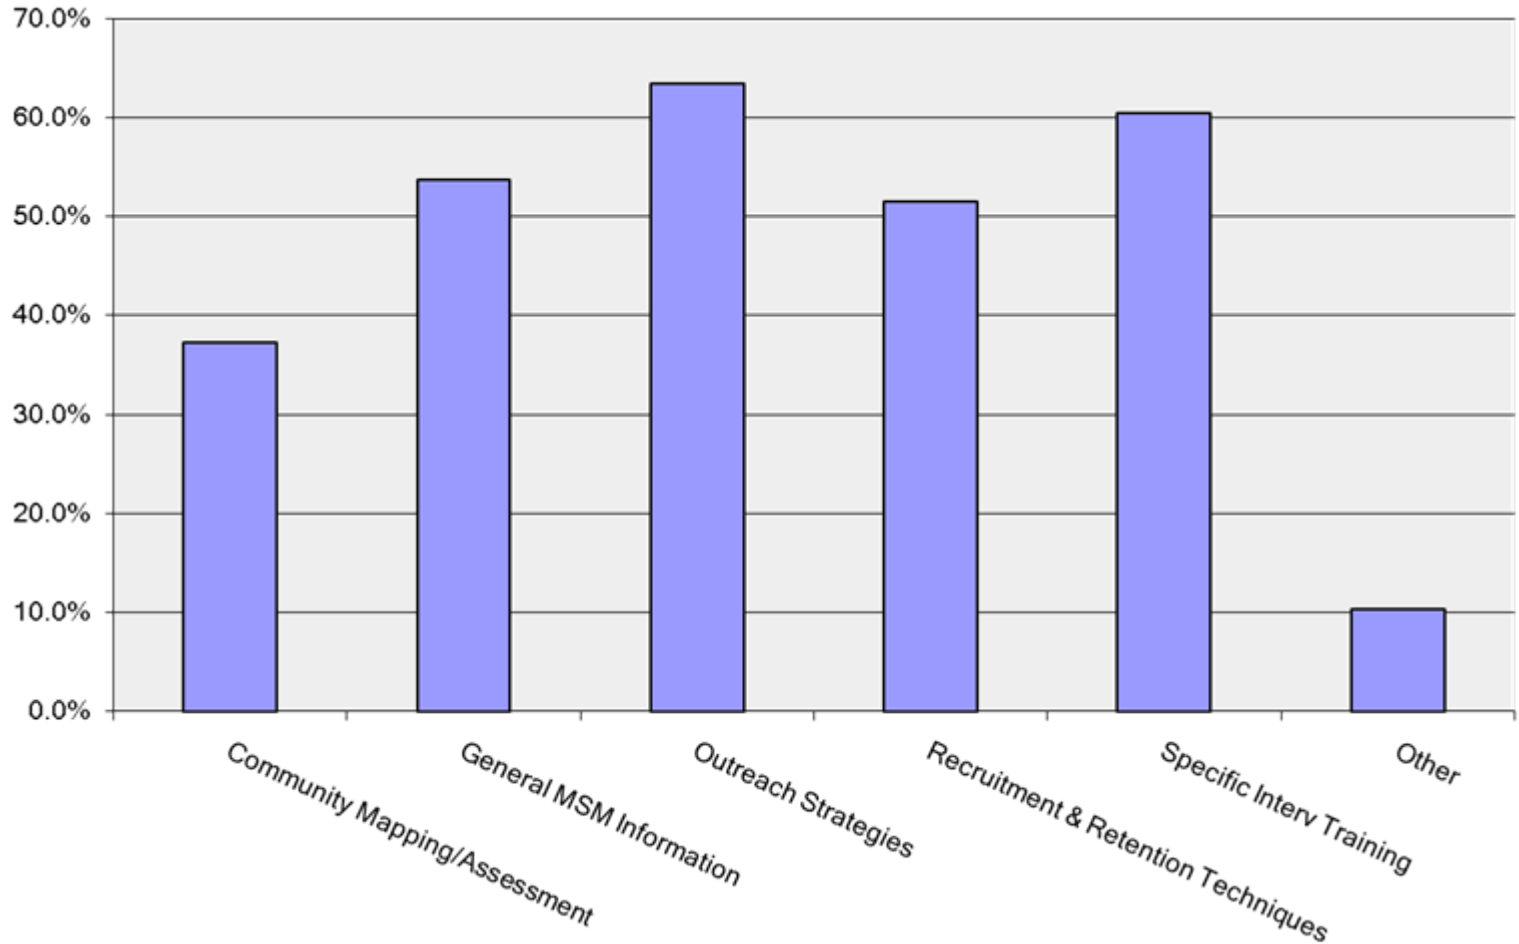

What's your agency's level of experience providing services to MSM?

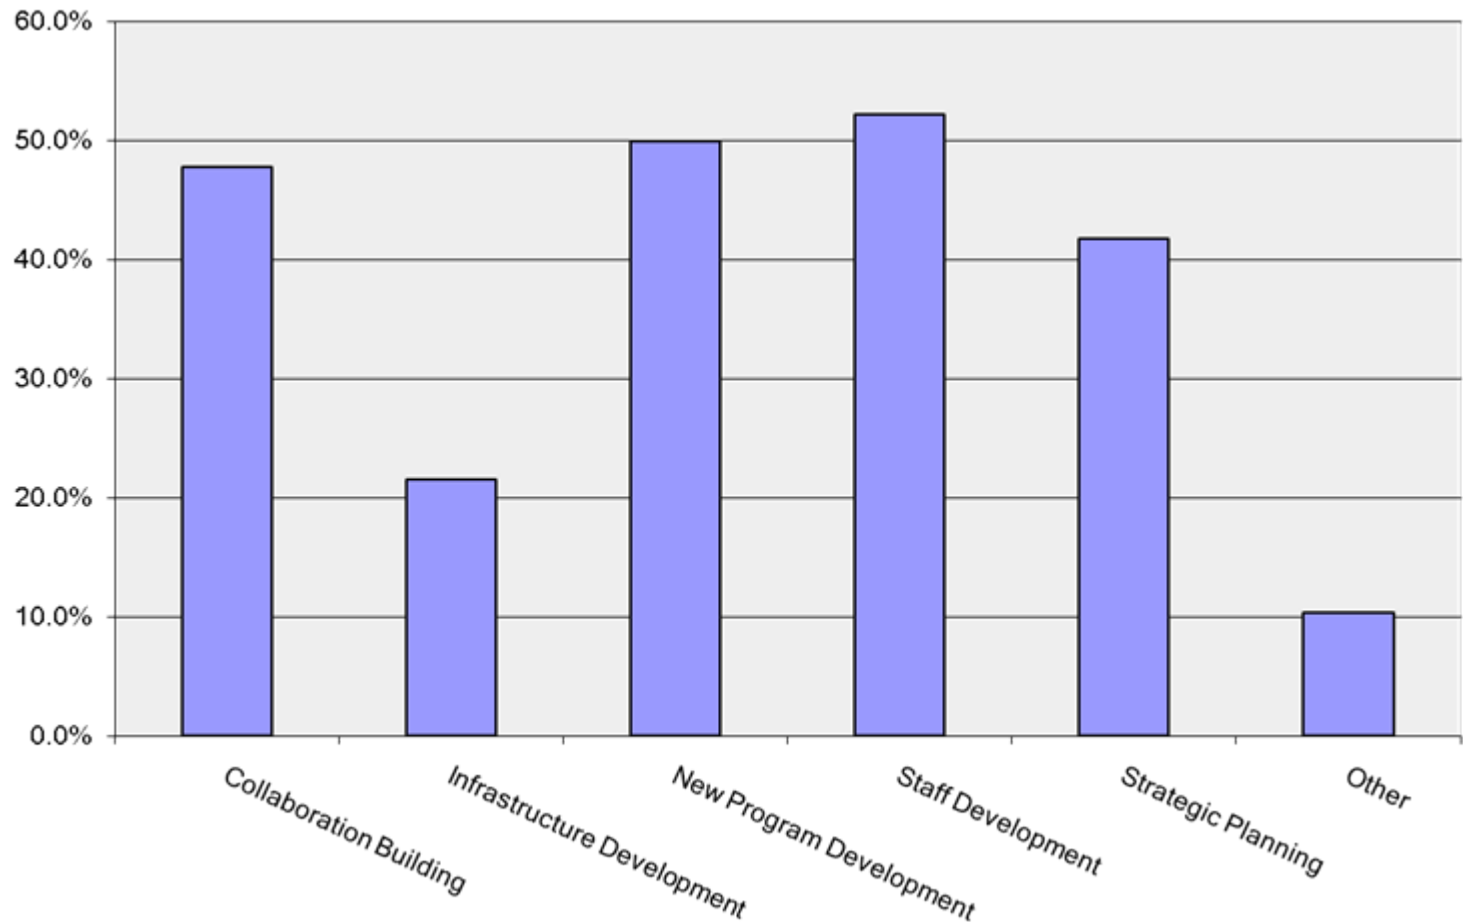

Does your agency plan to provide HIV prevention services to MSM in the future?

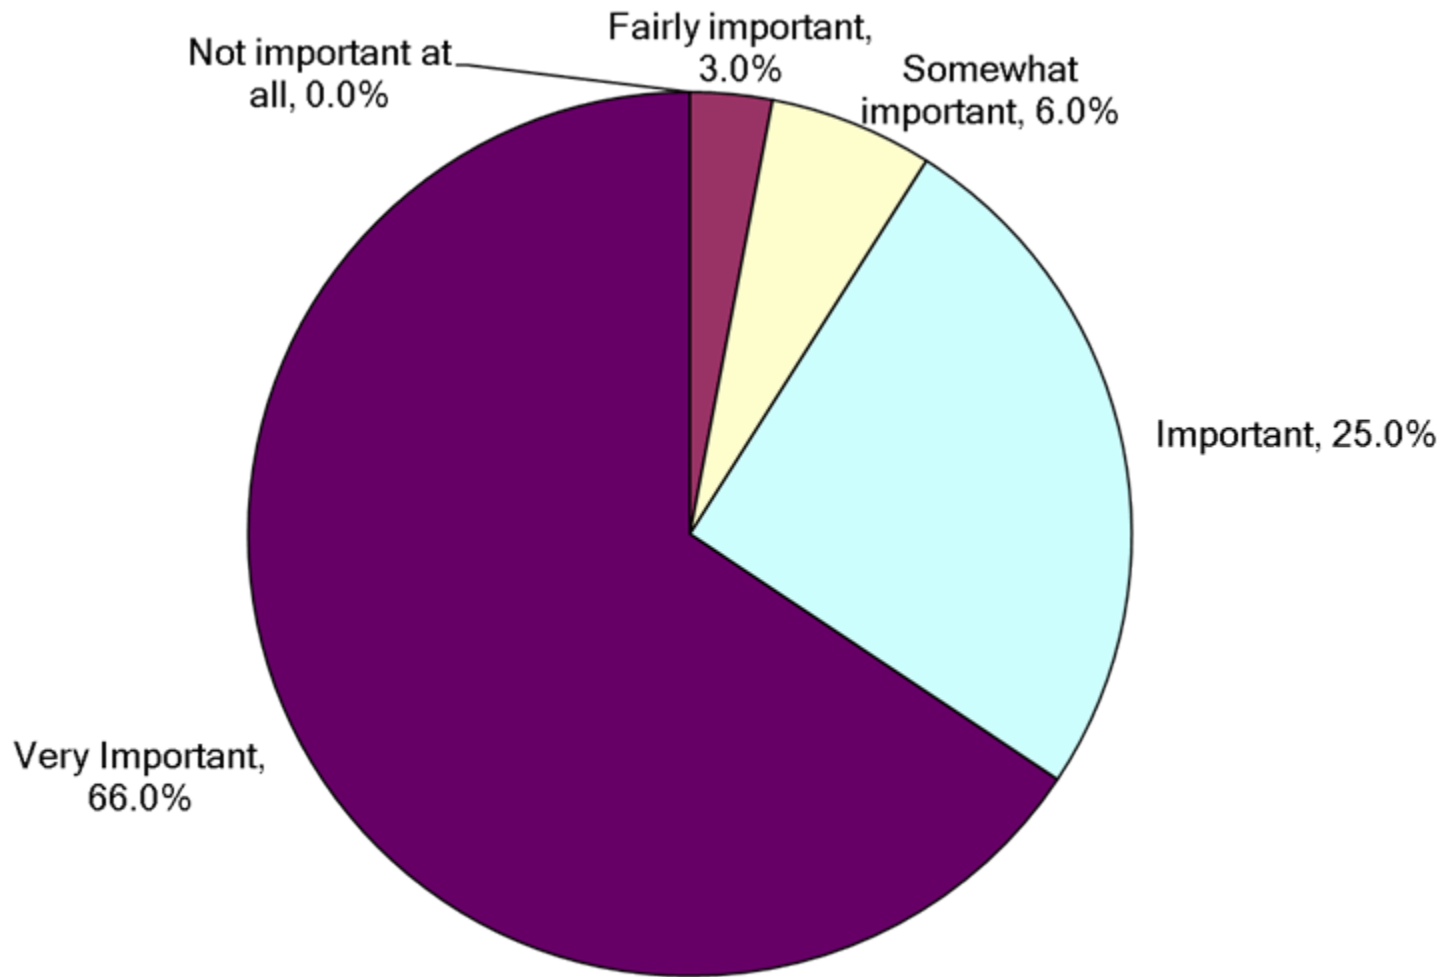

What would your agency need in terms of training to be able to provide HIV prevention services to MSM in the future?

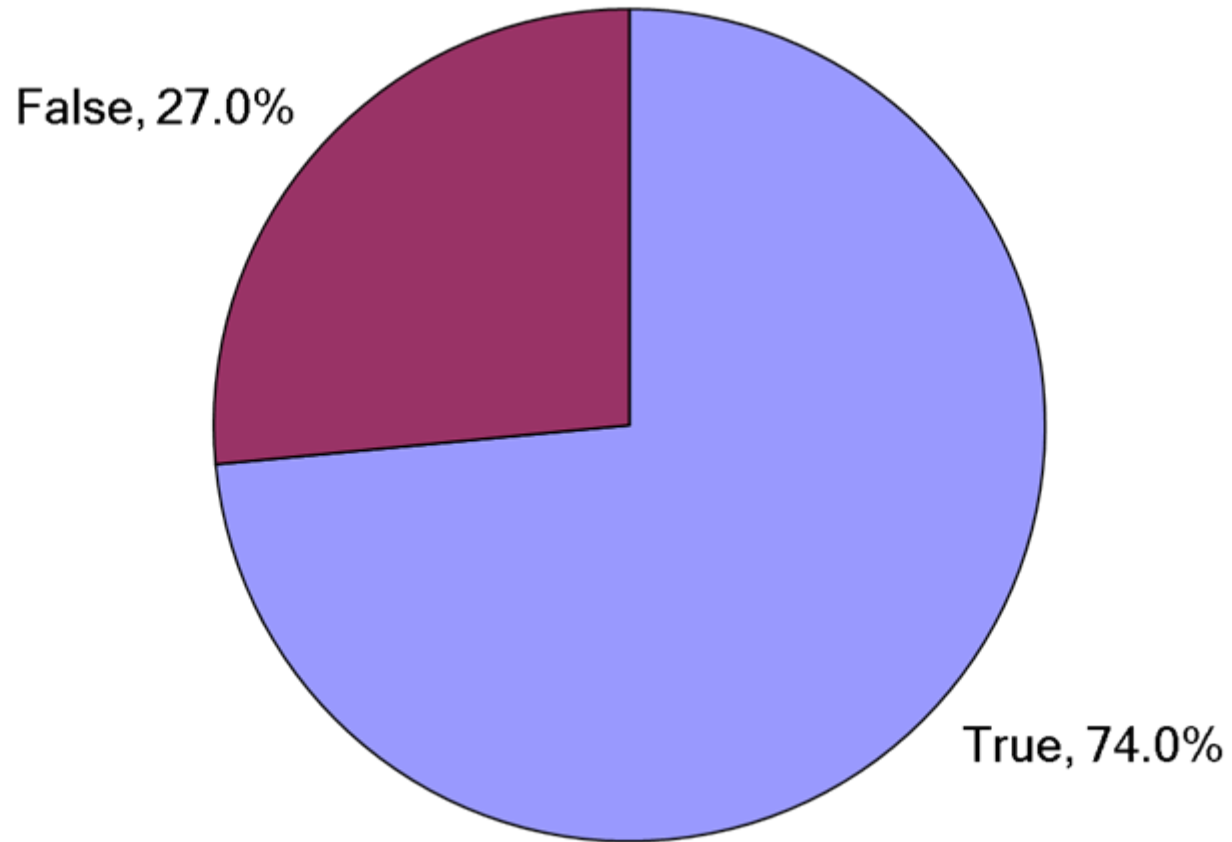

What would your agency need in terms of capacity building assistance to be able to provide HIV prevention services to MSM in the future?

In the field of HIV prevention, how much of a priority is HIV prevention for MSM?

Pop Quiz: In the US, MSM are once again the transmission category with the largest number of new HIV/AIDS diagnoses?

QUESTIONS?