Related notices:

- NOT-OD-20-118 (released June 10, 2020): NIH is issuing this notice to highlight the need for and value of data harmonization and data sharing specifically in the context of urgent competitive revisions and administrative supplements producing data to investigate the social, behavioral, economic, and health impacts of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Public Health Emergency.
- NOT-MH-20-061 (released June 4, 2020): With this notice, NIMH offers guidance on the use of consensus-derived common data elements (CDEs) pertaining to mental health outcomes and a set of newly available measures regarding experiences during the COVID-19 public health emergency and exposures to the SARS-CoV-2 virus. The goal of this notice is to reduce proliferation of one-off survey items and to facilitate data integration, collaboration, and comparisons across data sets.
